Capay Valley Vision is excited to host the 21st Annual Taste of Capay, to be held at Luna Lavender Farms, 7086 County Rd 49, Guinda, CA 95637 on Sunday, October 23, 2022 from 1-5pm.

Taste of Capay is a longstanding event in the Capay Valley and meant to celebrate the bounty of food grown in the community. The event will feature passed hors d'oeuvres and a multi-course dinner highlighting produce, meat and other products sourced from Full Belly Farm, Riverdog Farm and other Capay Valley farms. A Oaxacan style menu will be created by Rustic BBQ/Commons Farm Kitchen, Lucy's Cafe, Savory Cafe, Full Belly Kitchen, Kitchen 428 and Esparto High School Culinary Program. The menu will be completed with fall-inspired desserts by Mari Penley.

Guests will enjoy wines from Seka Hills, Heather Creek Ranch, Capay Valley Vinyards and Taber Ranch. Olive oil will be featured from Capay Valley Ranches, Seka Hills and Pasture 42. The event will also include music, silent auction and even a live auction during dinner.

Proceeds from the event will support the Capay Valley, Esparto and Madison volunteer Fire Departments. The volunteer fire departments have long been trusted and essential resources to the Capay Valley, Esparto and Madison communities.
